

The Countdown has begun! Tricky Tray tickets go on sale Friday, March 14 at 5pm. We heard many of you would like to attend, so here are the details to prepare:

- Highly encourage everyone to become a member of the HSA group and follow the Tricky Tray Facebook event ahead of time. FAQs available in event "discussion."

- If you are planning a night out with your pals, make sure you appoint a table leader who will be submitting ONE payment and ONE form for the whole table! You will need to know the packages each person wants when submitting your form. (Package options attached and in event.)

- From there, the HSA will send you an invoice and you will pay either through Zelle (no fee through your bank account) or Cheddar Up (credit card - additional fees). No other options for payment will be offered.

- Click the inactive link below to ensure you are signed into Google. This will be the same link that will 'go-live' on Friday, March 14 at 5pm

We are currently at 260 baskets, and more are coming in every day! We are super excited about this event, and we hope to see you there.

The poster features a dark background with gold text and decorative elements like a gold ribbon and bokeh lights. It lists four ticket packages (A, B, C, D) with their respective prices, savings, and ticket counts for different seating areas (Low, Med, High, Grand). At the bottom, it states the ticket sale date and time, where to find the purchase link, and a note about the cash bar and food.
